

Hereford Town Hall

Full disabled access

Publishers of the popular In Our Age, Herefordshire Lore has been recording, publishing and archiving people's recollections since 1989.

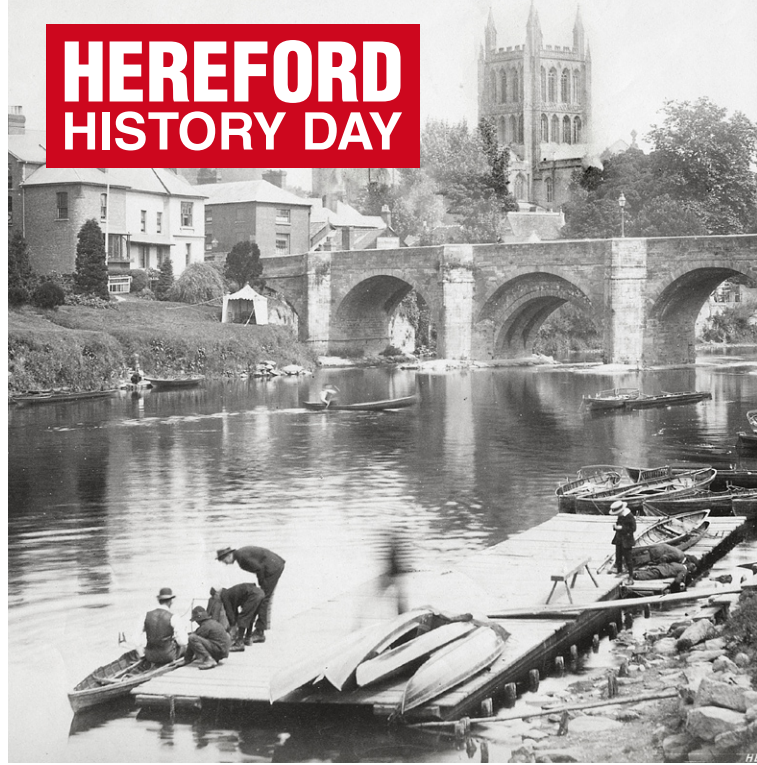

Come and meet: Bartonsham History, Guild of Guides, Hereford Museum and Art Gallery, English Heritage, Herefordshire Light Infantry, Cathedral Archives, Hereford Archives and Records Centre, Working Boys Industrial School, Rotherwas Together, Herefordshire Family History Society, Civic Society, Woolhope Club, Museum of Cider, Waterworks Museum, Hereford Rowing Club, Herefordshire Libraries, Catcher Media.

A big thank you to our sponsors: Hereford City Council, Herefordshire Family History Society, Hereford Lions Club, Bill Jackson Properties, The Orange Tree, Watkins Thomas, Ogelby Butchers, The Coffee Cart, The Barrels.

HEREFORDSHIRE
FAMILY HISTORY SOCIETY

HEREFORD HISTORY DAY

Saturday 21st September
10.30 am – 4.00 pm

Town Hall, St Owen's Street, Hereford HR1 2PJ

Herefordshire Lore invites you to an exciting day of local history, heritage and speakers.

FREE ADMISSION

BBC's Nick Barratt
The SAS Story
Walks, Talks and Family History
Displays, film, performance
... and plenty of history

Welcome to five hours of local history and heritage with a return of special guest, Nick Barratt from BBC's Who Do You Think You Are?

Programme

- 10.00 – 10.30 Civic Procession
- 11.00 – 11.45 Talk – The Origins of the SAS with Major David Seeney
- 12.00 Walk – Hereford's Historic Buildings with Guild of Guides
- 12.15 – 1.00 Talk – Family History in the Digital Age with Nick Barratt
- 1.30 Walk – Historic Women of Hereford with Guild of Guides
- 1.45 – 2.30 Talk – The Campaign for Women's Suffrage from a Hereford perspective, with Clare Wichbold OBE
- 2.30 – 3.00 Performance – The History Slam 'Whose plinth is it anyway'
- 3.00 Presentation – Winners of the Young Historian Award

All day – don't miss

Nick Barratt

History Supermarket – seventeen stalls and displays

Tours of The Mayor's Parlour with John Marshall

Rolling film: Remember Hereford in 1984

Photo credits: Chris Preece, Keith James, In Our Age/Herefordshire Lore, Rolly Bradstock, Barbara Perrin

Join us for tea, fabulous home-made cakes and good company. Mix, mingle, and share your family histories.